TAROT COUNSELING NEWS

Prayer & Divination

On an essential level divination is a desire to communicate with The Divine, much like a prayer may be a form of petition to God for help, guidance, or support. When we use divination tools such as Tarot cards, we are often searching for guidance or support in our lives. Some people look for help in making everyday decisions about work, finances, health, or relationships. Others may seek spiritual guidance for finding their path in life or for moving through transitions.

Whether we use prayer or divination, the hope is that we will receive help from a source beyond our day-to-day consciousness that will have meaning in our life today. And this advice is believed to be from an impartial observer who has our best interest at heart. It takes faith to trust that our prayer will be answered or our question addressed. It takes courage to consider the guidance we receive and make meaningful choices in our lives based on what is revealed to us. And, it requires love and compassion to implement change, leaving our old identity in favor of new possibilities.

The Power of Prayer is immense, the Purpose of Divination is significant!
