TAROT MYSTICISM

Tarot cards carry a mystique. Whether this is of ancient design or modern application is a matter of ongoing debate and research.

What we do know is that over the centuries there have been mystical and divinatory tools that various cultures have utilized in supporting their lives. This tradition has carried on to our time and is represented beautifully in the Tarot deck.

Modern Tarot cards have intended mystical influences, predominately from Alchemy, Astrology, and Kabbalah. This is a result of the work of European secret orders and metaphysical scholars, such as Arthur E. Waite and Aleister Crowley.

The purpose of this influence, to speak briefly, was to assist the student of spiritual and/or metaphysical knowledge to mediate more deeply applying the Art of Memory in designing each image or card. The Art of Memory was a classic technique for clumping groups of symbols together to compose a meaning or message.

To learn more about the mystical side of Tarot, plan to attend my "Beginning Tarot" workshop at New Renaissance Bookstore in Portland, Saturday, June 29, and the "Kabbalah in Tarot" workshop May 4 at Fuego in Portland. Registration information is on Page 2 of this newsletter.

TRANSFORMATIVE TAROT COUNSELING™ CLASSES

Tarot Magic & Transformation

Several years before creating the Transformative Tarot Counseling™ Certification Program I developed a lecture for the ATA conference on the transformative approach to reading Tarot cards. The information in this talk is the inspiration and guide for the design of the program.

Transformation is the result of magic and the therapeutic goal of my readings. To be able to shift one’s perspective, find a meaningful message, and/or grasp new tools for changing one’s life is a powerful means for moving forward in a purposeful and balanced manner. This takes one far beyond the predictive projection of some other readings, while empowering the client in making effective choices in life.

If you have ever wondered what goes into my readings or how to develop your own Tarot Counseling style, this rare workshop is a must to attend.

Tarot Magic & Transformation is being held at Fuego in SW Portland. Please register soon for space is limited, as is parking. Fuego is within a few blocks of the Max line ... very convenient!

For more information about my classes, please visit my website to read the class summaries, accessed via the “Classes & Programs” or “Schedule” button. I am also available by phone or email to respond to your inquiries.

PRIVATE SESSIONS

When I’m not at a fair or teaching a class, I’m available for private Transformative Tarot Counseling™, Dream Analysis or counseling sessions. I bring over 30 years of Tarot knowledge and 18 years of professional counseling experience to my work.

Appointments are scheduled in Portland, Yachats, or over the phone. I accept cash, personal checks, and some credit cards.

Love & Light,

Katrina
